

User manual
8 ch Transmitter
model us819

1. Summary

This transmitter is designed to work with a receiver from the SMD-series. The transmitter may be equipped with up to eight push buttons and up to two laterar thumb wheel or rockes switches.

2. Battery

The transmitter is powered with one or two CR2450 batteries, to acces the batteries unscrew the two screws on the back of the transmitter.

FCC

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) warns the users that changes or modifications to the unit not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

FCC ID 2AMIB-USTU01

Producer: ROCKAB AB

Model Number: us819

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation