Subject: Firmware – TBA Module Transmitter

Applicant: Inovonics Corporation

FCC ID: HCQTBA

IC: 2309A-TBA

To whom it may concern:

This is to inform you that the firmware of the subject module cannot be modified or adjusted by the end user. A flash locking mechanism is in place which prevents any third party modification. Any attempt to modify flash will erase all the flash content.

Thank you for your assistance with this submittal.

Sincerely,
