

Tune Up Procedure

Each unit is tune during production and performance tested during production against pass/fail criteria. The design provides no provision for user adjustment, only channel selection.