

Tune-up Procedure

Each unit is tuned during production and tested pass/fail criteria. Tuning requires specialized equipment and procedures not available outside manufacturing facility. The equipment offers no provision for user tuning or service and must be returned to manufacturer for repair.