REF: YOUR EMAIL REQUEST OF 9/25/98

Dear Rich:

Per your request, I have attached time domain plots. I have also attached a revised radiated page because I must have inadvertently figured out the margins wrong on the original report. The measurements have not changed.

The changes made to this device are listed as follows:

1. They changed the PCB.
2. They changed the values of R10, R13, R15, C11, C16, C20, C21 AND L19
3. They moved TA29 on the PCB.

Should you require any further information, please advise.

Sincerely,

Sharon A. Hoffman
