

Conducted Spurious Measurement Test Setup

The Signal generator supplies a low RF level that is amplified, by the driver, to a suitable input RF level to the PA.
The PA output is set to 180W.
The attenuation level is 60dB.
The conducted spurious emissions were measured up to 10th harmonic.

