

8/12/03

USERS MANUAL

MEDIAGROUP WIRELESS AUDIENCE RESPONSE TRANSCIVER

FCC ID: P8LMGT100

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules:

Operation is subject to the following conditions:

- (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) This device must accept any interference received,
Including interference that may cause undesired operation

Warning: Changes or modifications to this unit not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

Mediagroup Wireless
12 S. Main Street
South Norwalk, CT 06854

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE

- Load operating software onto computer to be used with the system
- Connect serial communications cable to DB-9 connector on back of case and to serial port of computer.
- Install three antennas to front of unit.
- Plug in power cord to back of unit and into power source.
- Turn on power switch on back of unit. Green light on back of unit and red light on front should illuminate. If power source is not attached, unit will operate from the backup battery for up to several hours. The light on the back of the unit will be red if it is operating from the battery.
- Start operating software and follow directions on screen.
- See instructions for accompanying keypad units.