Dear Eric Dobson:

Pls see the words below,

1.SUBJECT: XIAMEN LONGSTAR LIGHTING CO., LTD. - FCC ID: PKCLS0301

REFERENCE: JOB 972CC3

Your question:

1. Nine (9) Models: Please identify any parts that are different from one model to another. And identify these part on the schematic.
2. Block Diagram must indicate frequencies on it. Please revise & resend."

Our answer:

- 1.The application confirm the schematic and parts on each circuit board are identical. If you have some question as before, pls see the picture "photos". Our Engineer confirm that the parts mounted on the circuit cards are in agreement with the schematic really. They do not appear to be identical , because they have different point of view.
- 2.Pls check the Block Diagram and the schematic again.[See FILE1=d:\ftp\proot\timcouplod\cathrin-345--8-6-2003-01847\Longstar PKCLS0301.zip (731935)]

Our doubt:

In your mail in Aug 09, you said,"We are reviewing your response. We will contact you if we have any questions." But after that, we can't received any message about this manner.

You advise us "If there are different parts on the circuit board, you must ask for a separate FCC ID for those lights".

I'm very sorry to perplex you in this manner. But I don't know how can make this correct . I wish that you can in connection with the question over and above provide an advice to us.
