4. When you click on the New button, the new profile dialog box will show out to allow you to key in some profile data. You may key in a profile name, Network Name to associate to wireless network, Network Type for Infrastructure or Ad-hoc; If you click " Ad-hoc", you can click the task bar, then choose the Chanel.

（Profile 1）

（Profile 3）

5. When you click the Advance button, the Advance dialog box will display. Users can insert and select the data. WEP for 64bits or 128bits; In order to enable WEP encryption, hexadecimal values must be inserted in WEP Key item. The value must match the Key on all other devices on the wireless network or else this device will be unable to transmit or receive data.

（Profile 2）

（Advance 1）