Dear Mr Graff,

Advanced Industrial Controls is the exclusive Marketing arm in America of the TM60 series wireless controls manufactured by IKUSI. Located in Bradford, PA we provide Marketing, Application Engineering, and customer support for this product.

The TM60 wireless controls will be marketed as a licensed (part 90) or unlicensed (part 15) device, depending on customer preference.

If the customer chooses an unlicensed system, IKUSI will manufacture the system in accordance with regulations governing part 15 and include the proper documentation pertaining to this system in the owners manual. An example of an insert of the manual follows.

Sincerely,
