

Dear Wang Wei,

We have received your confidentiality request letter, but can file as confidential only information not generally provided or available to the public or users of the equipment and where other conditions of FCC 0.459 are met.

Items in your filing that can be filed as confidential are:

- Schematics
- Block Diagrams
- Parts List
- Operational Description

These items will be filed as confidential. Other items will be available for viewing in the FCC e-file system after the approval.
