

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

WARNING

1. Risk of explosion if battery is replaced by an incorrect type.
2. Disconnection of antenna before battery is replaced.
3. Dispose of used batteries according to the instructions.