Finding Your Content

This section describes how you can use the media player to access your digital media collection over the local network.

- Access network attached storage – view and play back digital media content stored on your network attached storage device or media server. See “Accessing Media Content” on page 28.
- Access your online media – view and play back your digital media content stored in your Facebook or Picasa online accounts. See “Accessing Media Content” on page 28.
- Attach USB storage – attach a USB storage device to the media player and transfer media files back and forth to it using your computer. See “Transferring Files” on page 33.
- Share a folder on your computer – view and play back digital media content stored on your computer by sharing one or more folders containing the media. See “Share a Folder on Your Computer” on page 37.

Accessing Media Content

Once the media player has an active network connection, you can access media content from a Network Attached Storage (NAS) device or shared computer located on the same network as your media player. You can also access content from USB storage connected to the media player. The benefits and applications of each content source type are described below.

To access media content from a network share, media server, USB storage, or online account:

1. Navigate to the Home screen, and select the menu for media content you wish to access. It can be Music, Videos, or Photos. Press OK.
2. Press OK to select a new content source or press B or ▲/▶ to select Select Content Source , then press OK.
3. Press ▲/▼ to select the network resource where the media content you want to access is located, then press OK.

Note: My Media Library does not appear on first use or if the media library is turned off (see “Media Library” on page 197). It only appears if you have a USB drive attached or have added a network attached storage drive to the Media Library list

Content Source	Best for accessing...
My Media Library	All available network shares and attached USB storage (slow scan—depending on the number of files and connection speed, the scanning time required to compile the media library may be increased).
Local Storage	Storage devices attached to USB ports 1 and/or 2.
Media Server	Network-attached media server devices for ease of use (optimal for DLNA certified server devices such as WD's My Book® Live™).
Network Share
Windows Shares	Windows network shares, most network attached storage drives, legacy Mac OS before Lion, and other devices that uses SMB/CIFS protocol.
Linux Shares	Linux (NFS) network shares (recommended for advanced power users).
Online Service	Photos and videos posted in your Facebook and Picasa online accounts.

My Media Library

The benefit of selecting this option is that it shows all the aggregated content on your network attached and USB storage together in one view. However, it does take longer to scan all the storage content compared to selecting a more specific option for content retrieval.

To add additional source content to My Media Library, please do one of the following:

- Attach USB storage to one of the USB ports on the media center and it is automatically added to media library.
- Connect to a Windows or Linux Share (see “Network Share” on page 31). While browsing the content inside, press Option to add a share folder to the Media Library.

- Use the Media Library Manager for Network Share (see “Media Library Manager for Network Share” on page 201), and select Add network share to media library to manually add individual share folders to the media library. A maximum of 10 shares can be added.

Local Storage

Select Local Storage to access media content on one or more USB storage devices connected to the media player's USB 1 or USB 2 ports.

After selecting USB 1 or USB 2, the media player scans the drive to build the media library by default (if enabled).

If the media player and your computer are attached to the network, you can transfer files back and forth between your computer and the USB storage device. See “Transferring Files” on page 33.

Media Server

This menu displays network attached UPnP media servers connected to your network and usage is optimized with DLNA compliant devices such as WD My Book Live personal cloud storage and other WD TV Hub media centers.

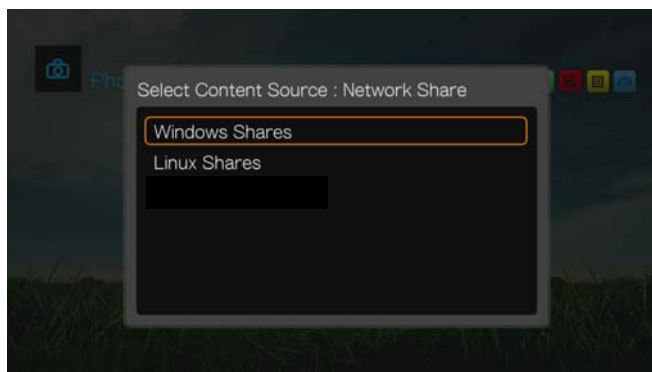

The benefit of using a media server is that it aggregates the content together from the device that is hosting it. The media server hosts a list of supported file formats with metadata information that allows a client device like the media player to easily browse and play back the content.

However, using a media server can restrict supported file types and you may not be able to see all the files stored in the media server. When using a Network Share, every file is presented to the media player and it does the content filtering based on what it can support.

Follow the steps below under “Accessing a Shared Folder,” selecting the name of your media server and referencing your media server documentation for password setup and administration if necessary.

Network Share

The media player supports Windows (SMB/CIFS), and Linux (NFS) network shares.

Windows Shares

Windows Shares uses Samba (also known as SMB/CIFS), a more common protocol among devices such as PC, NAS, and Mac (before Lion). If you want to simply discover and/or share a folder on the network to be accessed by the media player, Samba is a common method, especially for Windows.

Windows Shares display shared computers and network attached storage devices (such as WD's My Book Live personal cloud storage NAS drive) connected to your network via the Samba protocol.

Linux Shares

Linux Shares uses NFS, which is popular with power users and Linux users because of the increased speed and performance it can provide. NFS is better suited to Linux since using NFS with Windows requires installation of third party applications.

Follow the steps below under “Accessing a Shared Folder,” selecting the name of your NAS device or computer and referencing your NAS device or operating system documentation for password setup and administration if necessary.

Accessing a Shared Folder

To create a shared folder, follow the instructions under “Share a Folder on Your Computer” on page 37.

To access a shared folder under Network Share:

3. Press ► to select OK, then press OK. Supported content for the selected media type displays.
4. Select the content you wish to access, then press OK to start media playback.

Accessing Network Attached Storage

Follow the steps above under “Accessing a Shared Folder,” selecting the name of your NAS device and referencing your NAS device documentation for password setup and administration.

Online Service

This menu allows you to connect to media content stored in your Facebook and Picasa online accounts. Select Facebook or Picasa and enter your user name and password to access your media content.

Logging in to a Network Resource or Online Account

When accessing a network resource, you need to enter in the user name and password for the device or account using the on-screen keyboard. In some cases, a default anonymous login displays if no password is set for the device. When this happens, accept the default login, select , then press OK.

Select Remember Me and press OK to have the media player remember the user name and password for the resource.

Transferring Files

If the media player has an active network connection, any USB drive connected to it can serve as a network drive. This allows you to transfer files between your media player and your computer. This feature is applicable to a PC running the Windows® XP, Windows Vista®, or Windows 7 operating systems, as well to a Macintosh® computer running Mac® OS X® Leopard® or Snow Leopard®.

Media Library Compilation

Media Library Compilation refers to the process of scanning and consolidating the media contents of the media player, network attached storage, or an attached USB device into one comprehensive database so that you can easily browse and locate media files based on certain metadata information (e.g., video files are categorized based on title or release date).

Media Library Compilation Exemptions

The following conditions will prevent the media library compilation process.

- The network share has read-only protection.
- The USB device has read-only protection.
- There is not enough storage space in network attached storage or an attached USB device.
- A drive is locked.

To turn off Media Library Compilation (default is On):

1. Navigate to Home | Setup | System.
2. Select Media Library, and then press OK.

3. Select OFF, then press OK.

Note: Clear Media Library clears then rebuilds the media library.

Supported Categories for Media Library Compilation

Locating Your Contents on the Drive

There are two ways of locating a particular media file depending on whether or not the media library compilation function is enabled.

Manual Search

You can manually search for a media file by navigating to the specific media section and browsing through the available file folders. This method is recommended if there are only a limited number of files to search through. Otherwise, it is better to enable the media library compilation and use the built-in Search function.

QuickMix

QuickMix is a feature that allows you to listen to more than one of your stations at once. QuickMix will play only one song based on particular musical characteristics at a time (unlike regular Pandora stations, which play four related songs in a row), so the mood changes more often.

Providing Song Feedback

You can influence the music selection that is streamed into your Pandora station by providing track feedback for the song currently playing. You can give a song a “thumbs up” or a “thumbs down” vote.

Thumbs up

If you like the currently playing song, give it a thumbs up vote. This positive feedback means:

- The very next set of songs for this station will be generated using the song you’ve given a “thumbs up” vote to as a musical starting point.
- Future sets of songs are likely to have similar musical traits. Multiple “thumbs up” votes on this station for other similar songs will have a cumulative effect.
- This song will play somewhat more often than other songs on this station's potential playlist, and will play about as often as other songs that have received a “thumbs up” on this station.

Thumbs down

If you don't want to hear a song on a particular station, give it a thumbs down vote. This negative feedback means:

- The song will stop playing, if there are any of the remaining “six skips per hour” available on that particular station (this limit is per station, on a rolling per-hour basis).
- The song will be permanently removed from that particular station's playlist.
- A new set of songs with a different musical emphasis will begin to play.
- If you’ve given at least two “thumbs down” vote to a specific artist on that particular station, songs from that artist will no longer be included in that station’s playlist.

To provide song feedback:

- While a song is playing, press ◀/▶ to select 👍 or 👎, then press OK.
A prompt to confirm your vote appears.

Putting a Song to Sleep

When you want to stop listening to song, but not permanently remove it from a station’s playlist, you put it to “sleep.” This prevents the song from playing on any of your stations for 30 days.

To put a song to sleep:

- While a song is playing, press ◀/▶ to select , then press OK.
A prompt to confirm the “sleep” action appears.
