

The diagram shows the back of an Electronic Under Test (EUT) as a large blue rounded rectangle. At the top center is a blue question mark icon. Inside this rectangle, there is an orange rounded rectangle representing the battery compartment. Within the orange rectangle is a green stepped rectangle representing the label location. Two black arrows point from text labels on the right to the orange and green rectangles respectively.

Back of EUT

Battery Compartment

Label Location inside the battery compartment