To Whom It May Concern,

Paragraph (d) of 47 CFR §0.457 allows the withholding of disclosure of materials considered to be trade secrets or privileged or confidential categories of materials not routinely available for public inspection. 47 CFR §0.459 also allows for a specific request to withhold submitted information.

The certification application for FCC ID includes the following items which constitute trade secrets and company confidential information and we request that it be withheld from public inspection.

- Schematic Diagrams
- Block Diagrams
- Theory of Operation

Sincerely,
